

FINDING YOUR COMMUNITY

HOME EDUCATION SUPPORT

STAY CONNECTED

Parents have the option to determine their child's educational path and the plan for reaching their military-connected student's educational goals. School Liaisons play an important role in partnering with homeschool families by providing information, resources and facilitating communication, while creating avenues for parents to make informed- decisions. There are so many options available and we are here to support and identify how we can connect you to your new community. Don't feel overwhelmed, we are standing by to assist!
